

BLOOMFIELD DEK HOCKEY

Social Media Policy

Bloomfield Dek Hockey, as part of the larger community of youth athletic organizations in the Greater Pittsburgh Area, recognizes the following:

- Words transmitted using the Internet and related technologies are published materials, available for worldwide access, and are public documents;
- The Values of dignity and respect for every person apply to all of our interactions with each other - in person at games, practices and events, or by virtual means;
- Using technology to publish opinions which are obscene, work against the values of dignity and respect of each person, or bring harm to the individual as well as to our Bloomfield Dek Hockey community are contrary to the mission of Bloomfield Dek Hockey.

Bloomfield Dek Hockey discourages players, coaches, spectators and family members from using technology in irresponsible ways relative to their Bloomfield Dek Hockey participation. Bloomfield Dek Hockey will hold all users responsible for their published words if they adversely affect individual teams, organizations, leagues, sports officials, team members and families. Those affiliated with Bloomfield Dek Hockey who use technology in ways that are contrary to our mission will face disciplinary action, up to and including suspension/dismissal.
